Bartlett Public Works Department Assists Police with Solving Burglary

On February 24, 2010 the Bartlett Police Department arrested Calvin M. Cooke, 26, of 1006 Franklin Drive, Bartlett. He was charged with a Class 2 Felony for Burglary.

At approximately 12:15 pm, Bartlett Police Department responded to a single-family residence in the 900 block of Confederation Drive to investigate a burglary. The homeowner alleged an unknown person entered his open garage and stole a miter saw valued at approximately $300.00. During the investigation, a Public Works employee informed Bartlett Police that he recently saw an individual carrying a miter saw near Franklin Drive. Police searched the area for the individual matching the description provided by the Public Works employee and located Cooke walking in the area of Concord Drive and Lexington Drive. He was arrested for Burglary and the miter saw was later recovered from his residence.

Cooke was transported to the DuPage County Jail in Wheaton to await his bail bond hearing.
